

Our chorus contest is held in the school festival in November every year.

It is one of our favorite events. Conductors and pianists are elected in each class.

All the classes practice very hard to win the contest.

written by Takuya