(1) ALT のウエスト先生(Ms. West)と中学2年生のあやさん(Aya)が、海外旅行のガイドブックに掲載されている統計資料を見ながら、観光について話をしています。 次の会話文を読んで、下の各問いに答えなさい。

Ms. West: Which country has the most tourists to Japan? Please, guess.

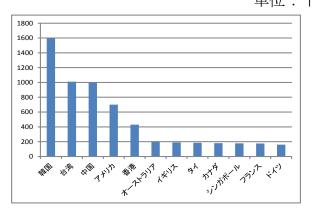

Aya: Well, let me see. Is it  $(\mathcal{T})$ ?

Ms. West: No. Look at Graph-A. This shows the number of tourists from each country who come to Japan.

 $(\checkmark)$  had the most in 2010.

Aya : Oh,  $(\mathcal{T})$  was \*ranked 4th in the world.

< Graph-A: 訪日外国人旅行者数 上位12カ国(2010)> 単位:千人

出典:平成23年度訪日外 客数・出国日本人数:日 本政府観光局

Ms. West: This guidebook says that Japan was ranked 78th in the world in the number of foreign tourist. Japan was ranked 6th in Asia.

Aya: Oh, really? I thought more foreign people came to Japan.

Ms. West: By the way, do you know the most popular place in Japan for foreign tourists?

Aya: Well, is it Tokyo?

Ms. West: That's right. Kyoto and Hokkaido are also popular among foreign people.

Aya: I hope many foreign tourists visit Miyazaki.

Ms. West: Do you know the best place to see in Miyazaki?
(a)

Aya: Takachiho Town has many places and things for tourists to see. For example, *Takachiho Gorge, Takachiho shrine, *the Yokagura dancing and so on.

The Yokagura dancing is one of Takachiho's most popular attractions.

You should visit there from November to February to see this traditional Japanese dancing.

Ms. West: Oh, I know that. I want to see the Yokagura dancing.
Will you tell me another good place to see in Miyazaki?
Aya: (ウ ウ )
