I became a chef because I thought cooking was wonderful job. I'm the oldest son. We were a large family. There were six people in my family. My parents were both working. They were very busy every night. When I was a high school student, I often made dinner for my family. I *became more confident because my family *praised my cooking. Since I *graduated from cooking school, I have tried to cook a lot of international foods. I think it's wonderful to *satisfy people. So I began as a cook. Now I'm very glad to make my guests happy.

エ

My dream is to build a cooking school in London.
